Governor Perdue Appoints Marvin K. Blount III Special Superior Court Judge

Gov. Bev Perdue today appointed Marvin K. Blount III of Greenville as a Special Superior Court Judge.

“Marvin Blount is an accomplished professional with a broad and distinguished legal background,” said Perdue. “Throughout the years, Marvin has shown a strong and continuous commitment to public service. North Carolina is fortunate to have an individual of his caliber joining the bench.”

Mr. Blount is a partner with the law firm of Blount and Blount, P.C., concentrating in civil litigation including class action and pharmaceutical matters in both State and Federal Courts. Prior to establishing his firm, Blount was an attorney with the Blount Law Firm. Blount previously served as Special Assistant and Counsel to the Chief of Staff of the U.S. Department of Justice Antitrust Division in Washington, D.C., and as an Assistant Advocate for the Chief Counsel of the U.S. Small Business Administration, Office of Advocacy in Washington, D.C.

An active member of the community, Mr. Blount served on the North Carolina Board of Transportation, the East Carolina University Board of Visitors and the Board of Pitt County Communities in Schools. Mr. Blount is also a member of “Keep Greenville Beautiful”.

Mr. Blount attended East Carolina University, graduating Magna Cum Laude in 1993. He earned his law degree at the Wake Forest University School of Law in 1996.
